WORKSHOPS

INDIVIDUAL EVENTS

IE Coordinator: Paula McConnell

There will be only one division of IE events. The division will have beginning IE labs and advanced IE labs. The IE division offers lectures, demonstrations, and individual coaching. Advanced IE students are required to bring 2 or 3 new contest selections, cut to time, and memorized. Beginning IE students are encouraged to bring contest selections, but there will be help during camp with selections. Beginning IE students have one year or less tournament experience. There will be an advanced IE tournament and a beginning IE tournament.

LINCOLN-DOUGLAS DEBATE

Beginning LD - Coordinator: Jim Ryan

Little (less than one year) or no competitive debate experience. Emphasizes basic skills. Students do not have to bring a case to camp.

Intermediate LD - Coordinator: Ashley Bowser

No less than one year of competitive debate experience. Emphasizes philosophy, skill drills, and practice rounds. Students do not have to bring a case to camp.

CX POLICY TEAM DEBATE

Coordinator: Gregg Hartney

In Camp Session I, there will be only one division of CX Debate. The division will have beginning labs and advanced labs. Students do not have to bring a case to camp.

(NOTE: Any CX debater that comes to camp as a single will be paired with another student by the coordinator in that division.)

2009-10 NATIONAL POLICY CX DEBATE TOPIC

The United States federal government should substantially increase social services for persons living in poverty in the United States.

All coaches and CX campers will go home with a CD containing all camp evidence and briefs from all CX divisions and labs from both camps. CX debaters in the first camp will be mailed a second CD that includes all evidence and briefs from both camps.

CX POLICY TEAM DEBATE

The 2009-2010 NFL national topic (also used by ULL) will be the camp CX topic.

Beginning CX - Coordinator: Lisa Barnett

Little (less than one year) or no competitive debate experience. Emphasizes basic CX theory and skills. Students do not have to bring a case to camp.

Intermediate CX - Coordinator: Gregg Hartney

No less than one year of competitive debate experience. Emphasizes debate theory and practice to move beyond the novice level—a balance of instruction, hands-on argument construction and debate practice. Students do not have to bring a case to camp.

Advanced CX - Coordinator: Michael Patterson

No less than one year of competitive debate experience. Emphasizes research, case construction, advanced negative position construction and practice rounds. Students do not have to bring a case to camp.

(NOTE: Any CX debater that comes to camp as a single will be paired with another student by the coordinator in that division.)

LINCOLN-DOUGLAS DEBATE

Beginning LD - Coordinator: Jim Ryan

Intermediate LD - Coordinator: Ashley Bowser

(See description in Camp Session I)

Advanced LD - Coordinator: Allen Dobbis

The Advanced LD Division will be in Camp Session II only. This division is helpful to debaters who will serve as leaders on their team. Students should come to camp with Aff and Neg cases on the camp topic and be prepared to debate on the first day. Activities will include practice rounds, analysis and research of prospective 2009-2010 NFL LD topics.
