This estimate is not a fixed cost; it is merely a tool for you to use to budget your expenses for your first year at Cameron. Each student's circumstances will be somewhat different, resulting in different living expenses. You will need to allow money for returning home or living in the United States during the summer (mid-May to mid-August).

International students are required by the U.S Citizen and Immigration Services (US-CIS) to be enrolled "full-time." At Cameron, full-time enrollment for graduate students is satisfied by completion of a minimum of 9 credit hours each Fall and Spring semester. You are not required to attend school during the summer, but you may attend the 8-week summer session.
