

The John G. Morris Poetry Prize Spring 2009 Cover Sheet

A first prize of $250 and second prize of $150 will be made to original poems, previously unpublished, on any subject and in any form. The criteria for judging include freshness and originality in idea, image, and form; exact and precise execution of whatever the poet attempts; the right words in the right order.

Rules:

1. All Cameron undergraduate students enrolled for the Spring 2009 semester are eligible.
2. Students can submit up to five poems, but only one poem per writer will be awarded either prize.
3. The author's name should not appear on any poem; hard copies of poem or poems should be accompanied by a cover sheet (such as this one) that identifies the author's name, mailing address, Cameron University Student Identification Number, home telephone number, e-mail address, and the titles of all poems he or she submits.
4. All manuscripts other than the winning one will be recycled, so please submit copies rather than originals.
5. The deadline for submission of hard copies for the 2009 contest is 5 p.m. on Friday, 13 February 2009, to Nance-Boyer 2014, the office of the Department of English and Foreign Languages. Please do not send poems by e-mail or deliver hard copies to Professor Morris, who will not be a judge.
6. The winner will be announced and the prize awarded at the department banquet.
