

Academic Appeals Committee

Minutes

August 14, 2019

- I. VPAA Vanderslice briefly discussed the purpose of the committee with committee members.
- II. The committee met with four students regarding appeals allowing them to re-enter classes one semester earlier than academic suspension entails.
- III. The committee discussed and voted that all four students should be allowed to re-enter classes in the Fall 2019 semester, with stipulations for one to limit credit hours to 12 hours.
- IV. Committee also recommended that two students attend a meeting with the CU financial resource specialist.
- V. Adjourned.