PROGRAM DESCRIPTION AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The MSEL is a comprehensive program for experienced teachers. It is designed to address many of the issues faced by school administrators. The goal of the program is to provide a framework of leadership skills that prepare program participants for the challenges faced by school administrators in the 21st century. To obtain certification as a K-12 principal in the state of Oklahoma, candidates must meet the requirements of the master's degree program and must pass the Principal Comprehensive Assessment Subject Area Test. Current student learning outcomes for the MSEL program are listed on the Cameron University Transparency webpage.

PROGRAM ADMISSION

Students who wish to pursue the MSEL should follow these procedures: 1) apply and be admitted to graduate studies at Cameron University; 2) provide evidence of one year of teaching experience as a certified teacher; 3) develop a formal Plan of Graduate Study with the assistance of the graduate advisor; 4) have two (2) acceptable recommendation forms submitted on their behalf; and 5) have a GPA of 3.0 or above.
