CONCENTRATIONS

1

Graphic Design

The Graphic Design Concentration prepares students to use their artistic skills to serve commercial clients such as major corporations and retail stores, as well as in advertising, design, and publishing. Illustrators create images for books, magazines, films, textiles, and more. Students in our program will learn all aspects of graphic design including software, typography, layout, branding and logo design, package design, illustration, photo manipulation, and printing. Students also complete a professional internship to gain real experience in the field.

2

Printmaking

Printmaking focuses on stone lithography, solar printing, intaglio, serigraphy, woodcuts, linocuts, dry points, collagraphs, and monotypes. Students are encouraged to experiment with new techniques and methods and to develop their images conceptually and aesthetically. Great emphasis is placed on content, developing strong techniques, and understanding the processes of all printmaking methods.

CONCENTRATIONS (CONT.)

3 Painting

Students will be introduced to a variety of traditional and experimental painting techniques using oil, acrylic, and watercolor paint. Beginning painting focuses on developing strong realistic painting skills while painting from direct observation. In advanced classes, students are guided by experienced faculty to develop their own content and expression through experimentation and exploration of various styles and techniques.

4 Sculpture

Students who select this option will design three-dimensional art works either by molding and joining materials such as clay, glass, wire, plastic, fabric, or metal or by cutting and carving forms from a block of plaster, wood, or stone. This program also introduces students to innovative techniques such as the use of mixed media and the incorporation of light, sound, and motion into sculpture installations.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Students who earn a degree in art will qualify for a variety of jobs in art museums and galleries, in the areas of fine arts, graphic design, illustration, education, media, photography, art sales, retailing, fashion, textile, or interior design.
