Please read the conditions of the scholarship.

1. Scholarship applicant must complete a Cameron University General Scholarship application before this application will be given full consideration.
2. Music Scholarships are based on a competitive audition, grade point averages and ACT scores. The evaluation of this audition by faculty members is final and non-negotiable.
3. All scholarships are subject to admission to Cameron University and availability of funds.
4. Scholarship recipients are expected to maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 and a 3.0 each semester in Music courses. If a student's GPA falls below the minimum requirement, the scholarship will be canceled for the next semester.
5. Students receiving a scholarship in music agree to participate in a designated ensemble(s) and study privately at Cameron University. If a student withdraws from any ensemble or other course that is part of scholarship requirements prior to the end of the semester, the student will be ineligible to receive any future scholarship from the Department of Art, Music, and Theatre Arts.
6. Please note: This is an application and not a guarantee of an award.
